

Photo Contest Details

Three photo categories include:

- Health Care organizations
- Worksites that are non-medical
- Community – such as church and civic groups, schools, families etc.

#TurnNDBlue

Photo Details

- Groups can vary in size.
- A panel of judges will review all the photos and select a winner in each category.
- Winners will receive a canvas print of the selected photos to hang in their office or community setting.
- The official Dress in Blue Day to recognize colorectal cancer is Friday March 4th, however “Turn North Dakota Blue” will span the entire month of March. Any photo taken during the month of March will be accepted into the photo contest.
- If you post to social media use #TurnNDBlue

Photo Contest Requirements

- Photos must have a clear resolution, for best results we encourage use of a camera.
- Photo participants should have some blue in their attire.
- Each photo will need to include a sign or banner indicating their organization/family and some kind of recognition of colorectal cancer awareness month.
- Each participant in the photo will need to sign both talent release forms included at the end of this document. 1 copy of EACH per person. Attached for copying.
- All talent release forms, category of group, organization name and photo must be sent by e-mail to ndcc@nd.gov with subject “TURN ND BLUE” by Thursday March 31st to participate in the photo contest.

E-mail questions about the photo contest to ndcc@nd.gov.

Photos will be posted on the North Dakota Cancer Coalition website and social media.

“Ask Me Why I’m Blue” stickers for printing available HERE